

TELEHEALTH MICRO-CREDENTIAL

of education and/or degree requirements, not having a criminal record, and meeting other certification requirements.

The health care industry is ever-evolving, and telehealth is a critical component of its transformation with ongoing advancements in technology and regulation changes. The telehealth micro-credential is designed to equip health care professionals with the specialized knowledge to align telehealth applications to legal and ethical requirements, including those regarding privacy and security, quality of care, and reimbursement. You will learn to analyze the application, modalities, and strategies to support the implementation of telehealth in health care organizations.

Students enrolling in the stand-alone option of this micro-credential are required to submit proof of a prior bachelor's degree. For more information, please refer to Additional Requirements for Graduate Programs (<https://catalog.purdueglobal.edu/policy-information/admissions/>).

When taken as a stand-alone offering, this micro-credential is eligible for Title IV federal financial aid.

This micro-credential is part of the personalization series. For more information about personalization series micro-credentials, see the Micro-credential Series section of the Additional Offerings (<https://catalog.purdueglobal.edu/additional-offerings/>) page and the Micro-credential Bulletin (<https://catalog.purdueglobal.edu/bulletin/>).

Certification, State Board, and National Board Exams

Certification and licensure boards have state-specific educational requirements for offerings that lead to a license or certification that is a precondition for employment. Prospective and current students must review Purdue Global's State Licensure and Certifications (<https://www.purdueglobal.edu/about/accreditation/licensure-state-authorizations/>) site to view program and state-specific licensure information.

You are responsible for understanding the requirements of optional certification exams. Such requirements may change during the course of your studies. You are not automatically certified in any way upon completion of an offering. Although certain offerings are designed to prepare you to take various optional certification exams, Purdue Global cannot guarantee you will be eligible to take these exams or become certified. Your eligibility may depend on your work experience, completion
