

STUDENT RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

In this section, you will find the Student Bill of Rights and policies governing student conduct, disciplinary actions, and appeals. This section also covers the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act, directory information, and the University's nondiscrimination policy and accessibility services. For information about the Sexual Misconduct Policy, please refer to the Additional References (<https://catalog.purdueglobal.edu/additional-references/>) section of the Catalog.

For additional Purdue University Global information about general institutional information, the Bureau of Consumer Protection, the Clery Act, the drug-free campus/workplace policy, graduation rates, student body diversity, and retention rates, please refer to Student Consumer Information (<https://www.purdueglobal.edu/student-consumer-information/>).

Purdue Global assumes no responsibility for loss or damage to your personal property or vehicle, including the contents of your vehicle.
